

Quality Programs Powered by

STEAM***

**Science, Technology, Engineering, the Arts and Math*

Back to Basics – Parent Involvement

Day: Tuesday, November 16, 2010
Session: 9:15 – 10:30 am
Room: Sachem West

Presenter:

Terry Strayhand – Terry.Strayhand@azed.gov

Title I Parent Involvement Coordinator
Arizona Department of Education

Session Description:

This Session will benefit new charter schools or new Title I programs; staff new to Title I or parent involvement; and for those wishing to have a “refresher” on the basics of setting up a parent involvement program. This session will review ESEA requirements and discuss the benefits of developing a quality parent involvement program.

The following topics will be explored: What does it mean for parents to be involved? Getting Parents motivated and why; Parent Involvement Policy; School Compacts; Staff participation; and Evaluations of Parent Involvement in Schools.

Presenter Information:

Terry Strayhand, MS, was a teacher and administrator in the areas of special education and early childhood. Currently she is an Education Program Specialist at the Arizona Department of Education, where she works with school districts and charter schools regarding Title I and Parent Involvement programs.

Session Handout:

PowerPoint

2010 MEGA Conference

